

Dr. Smallwood's work with Zoo Atlanta

Over the past several years - the veterinary staff at Zoo Atlanta has called upon the volunteer ultrasonography expertise of SFVS founder and internal medicine specialist Dr. Laura Smallwood, Dipl. ACVIM.

In this first image from 2001, Dr. Smallwood is seen with Zoo Atlanta's Dr. Maria Crane performing an ultrasound procedure on a tiger reported to be suffering from an eating disorder.

In this image from 2007, Dr. Smallwood lends a hand performing an ultrasound procedure on an orangutan at Zoo Atlanta.
